Bangladesh's Graduation from the Least Developed Countries Group

Pitfalls and Promises

Edited by Debapriya Bhattacharya, Centre for Policy Dialogue, Bangladesh.

Series: Routledge Research on Asian Development

Since the least developed countries group was identified in 1971, only four countries have graduated from the group, but now new studies predict that the next decade will see a rapid increase, with Bangladesh poised to be the largest country yet to leave the group. This book aims to articulate appropriate strategies and initiatives to help Bangladesh to increase momentum and to prepare for a sustainable graduation in 2024. The story of Bangladesh's journey to robust growth and hopefully LDC graduation will be of interest not only to scholars of Bangladesh, but also to researchers and policy makers with an interest in LDC graduation for other countries facing similar challenges.
