Scope of work for the service-provider

As mentioned above, the responsibility of the service-provider will be to carry out the publication process—copy-editing; graphic designing; and press printing.

- (a) Copy-editing: This entails a full manuscript check before going for printing. The service will include (but may not limited to):
 - language reading to check on grammatical correctness and consistency; punctuation consistency; typo of any kind
 - check on stylistic consistency in heading levels, table/graph formatting
 - reference list stylisation (as per the suggested international standard style guideline), including matching of all in-text citations and list entries
 - final proof-reading
- (b) Graphic designing: This entails designing of the full manuscript using a press-compatible professional software. The service will include (but may not limited to):
 - layout designing
 - formatting of the full text, including references list, annex, footnotes, source-notes
 - formatting (and recreate if necessary) all tables, graphs and other such elements
- (c) Press printing: This entails all printing-related activities. The service will include (but may not limited to):
 - forma setting as per printing requirement
 - printing, packaging and delivery of the contracted quantity of books to the CPD office
- (d) Other promo materials
 - Vendor will design the food coupons and name card badges and print required quantity
 - Vendor will provide bags with necessary logo branding as per the instructions of the CPD

Other issues

- Each layer of the publication works will go through an approval process at CPD's end. Necessary adjustments will need to be made at each stage accordingly.
- All design files, including the final forma files, both editable and create outline versions will need to be submitted to the CPD at the end of the assignment.

For bag, the vendor needs to take an approval on the bag quality and design.
