Scope of work for the service-provider

As mentioned above, the responsibility of the service-provider will be to carry out three complete layers of the publication process—copy-editing; graphic designing; and press printing.

(a) Copy-editing: This entails a full manuscript check before going for printing. The service will include (but may not limited to):

- language reading to check on grammatical correctness and consistency; punctuation consistency; typo of any kind
- check on stylistic consistency in heading levels, table/graph formatting
- reference list stylisation (as per the suggested international standard style guideline), including matching of all in-text citations and list entries
- final proof-reading

(b) Graphic designing: This entails designing of the full manuscript using a press-compatible professional software. The service will include (but may not limited to):

- layout designing
- formatting of the full text, including references list, annex, footnotes, source-notes
- formatting (and recreate if necessary) all tables, graphs and other such elements

(c) Press printing: This entails all printing-related activities. The service will include (but may not limited to):

- forma setting as per printing requirement
- printing, packaging and delivery of the contracted quantity of books to the CPD office

(d) Photographs relevant to the content:

- Vendor will take new photos, or will provide photos from royalty-free sources;
- Vendor will provide evidence/document that the photo is a royalty free image;
- All photos will be provided upon discussion with the CPD;
- If the faces of the individuals in the photos are clearly depicted, then the consent of all individuals appeared in the photo is required. The photographer must obtain and submit a consent form originally signed by the models.

Other issues

- Each layer of the publication works will go through an approval process at CPD's end. Necessary adjustments will need to be made at each stage accordingly.

- All design files, including the final form files, both editable and create outline versions will need to be submitted to the CPD at the end of the assignment.
